CHARTING THE COURSE OBJECTIVES

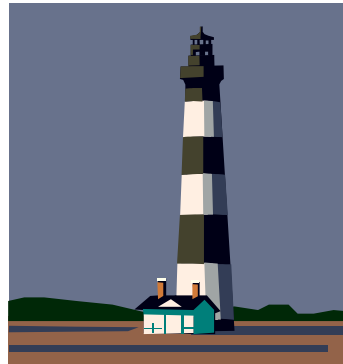

- To provide therapy services for children who have experienced loss, abuse, moves, and the emotional and mental health issues that lead to problem behaviors and attachment issues.
- To educate families in order to prevent onset of crises, reduce power struggles and maintain family unity.
- To support families throughout their developmental phases and related adoption issues.
- To assist adoptive families in understanding the feeling and behaviors of adopted youth.
- To provide extensive parent guidance to adoptive families in times of stress.

PROVIDING DIRECTION FOR ADOPTIVE FAMILIES

Since 1986, Parenthesis Family Advocates has been providing programming and services to adoptive families

Our hallmark services have been adoption specific counseling and education for families.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The purpose of our services is to provide counseling, education and support for adoptive families through all phases of the child's growing years with the understanding that adoption is a life long process.
